

HOOVER INSTITUTION NEWS RELEASE

George W. Siguler elected to Hoover Institution Board of Overseers

STANFORD – George W. Siguler has been elected to the Hoover Institution Board of Overseers.

Siguler is a managing director and founding partner of Siguler Guff & Company, LLC.

The election in July and installation as of September 1 of new overseers was announced by Hoover Institution director John Raisian.

The Hoover Institution at Stanford University is a public policy research center, founded in 1919 by Herbert Hoover, who went on to be elected the 31st president of the United States.

Information about the institution, its fellows, and programs is at www.hoover.org.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION:

Michele M. Horaney, APR, Public Affairs Manager
Or LaNor Maune, Public Affairs Writer
Hoover Institution Stanford University
650-723-0603
Horaney@hoover.stanford.edu
Maune@hoover.stanford.edu